INTRODUCTION

Global Migrant Literature and Culture is a short, free, online course introducing learners, through various readings and approaches, to literary/artistic works that focus on issues pertaining to migration, especially forced displacement.

OBJECTIVE

The course is specifically designed to facilitate access to university-style learning opportunities for those in the wider community who may encounter barriers (eg, international protection applicants, refugees, carers, & older people who have not completed a university qualification)

HOW TO APPLY?

Please fill out the questionnaire by copy and pasting the link below into your web browser:

<https://forms.office.com/r/mvQVaFzZ3B>

Closing date for applications:
Monday 20th September 2021.

CAPACITY

There is a maximum of 50 places on this course. Please note that we will prioritise applications from people who may otherwise find it difficult to access university-style learning opportunities.

Practical Information:

Starting on the 4th of October 2021, the course will take place completely online over a 4-week period.

Although this course does not lead to a qualification and will not be credit-bearing, learners will receive a certificate of participation on completion.

Kildare Libraries are generously supporting this initiative; registered learners will receive a copy of each of the course texts!
