

Dean of Teaching & Learning Seminar Series 2022-23

Thursday March 23rd

First Floor Flexible Learning Room, MU Library: 9am to 1pm

'Carpe Diem - Blended Learning - Purpose and Outcomes 1: E-tivities Workshop'

The Dean of Teaching and Learning Seminar Series is delighted to welcome Professor Gilly Salmon to Maynooth University to facilitate a Blended Learning workshop 'Carpe Diem - Purpose and Outcomes 1: E-tivities workshop'.

The workshop aims firstly to provide further clarity around blended learning and its various forms in the higher education context and then proceeds to engage attendees in exploring the learning and development process necessary to develop a well-informed, pedagogically effective and fit-for-purpose approach to blended learning suitable to the MU context. This will involve discussions around teacher transformation in the technological age.

Professor Gilly Salmon is founder and C.E.O of Education Alchemists Ltd - a company formed around her life's work including Carpe Diem learning design methodology, pedagogical transformation, online teaching, technology enhanced learning, the 5 stage model and e-tivities.
