

Examinations Information

When are exams held?

Exams are held at the end of Semesters 1 & 2 in January and May. Supplemental/Resit exams are in August. Exam dates and details can be found on the Examination Timetable Information webpage.

When will I get my exam timetable?

The exam timetable for January will be made available for student on the Exams office webpage Examination Timetable Information in late November.

Where can I see my exam timetable?

Exam dates and details will be available on the Examination Timetable Information webpage.

What time do exams start at?

Exams are scheduled to start at 9.30am, 12.30pm and 3.30pm. You should arrive approx. 15 minutes before your exam is due to start.

How long are the exams?

The exam durations are 60 minutes, 90 minutes, 120 minutes and 180 minutes.

Will the exams be on campus?

The January 2021 examinations will take place online.

I'm dyslexic will I get extra time?

If you have an ongoing condition/illness or other that may hinder you performing to the best of your ability in University you need to register with the disability office and then will put exam provisions in place for you.

Can exams be deferred?

If you cannot sit your exam, there is no need to defer or to deregister, you can simply not show up. However, it is good practice to let the relevant department know, so that they understand the situation. You can then register to take the resit in Autumn. There are a very small number of modules where an Autumn resit is not allowed. These are indicated on Course Finder. If you are in one of these modules, you should contact the Department and explain the situation.

What happens if I miss my exam?

If you were unable to sit your exam scheduled for January or May, you have the opportunity to sit the Supplemental/Resit exams in August. You must register to sit August exams. All details on how to register for Supplemental/Resit exams are available on the webpage Autumn Supplemental Registration Process -A guide for students.

Where and when can I see my class timetable?

Refer to the Timetabling Information on the Student Help Desk webpage www.maynoothuniversity.ie/studenthelp

My classes clash, who do I contact?

Refer to the Timetabling Information on the Student Help Desk webpage www.maynoothuniversity.ie/studenthelp

When are exam results released?

Full details on the time and date that exam results will be available can be found on the webpage Examination Results Information.

Where can I see my exam results?

Official exam results can be viewed on the Student Web portal. Results will not be issued by post. For provisional results contact your department.

I need a transcript of my results.

Refer to the Student Records and Registration Information on the Student Help Desk webpage www.maynoothuniversity.ie/studenthelp

If I do not pass any module in Semester 1 or 2 will there be an opportunity to resit them?

Yes, there are Autumn Supplemental/Resits in August every year. For more information see the Resitting and Repeat Information webpage.

How do I register to resit an exam?

You can register online through your student web. Details will be available on the Exams Office webpage after June results are released: <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/exams/examinations-info>

Is there a limit on how many modules I can resit?

You can resit any module that you have not passed or passed by compensation. If you wish to resit a passed module you will need to get special permission by filling in an RE1 form available at the above link. If you are in your final year you may sit up to 15 credits of passed modules. For further information see <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/exams/resitting-and-repeat-information>

What are the fees involved to resit an exam?

Any queries relating to fees contact the Fees & Grants Office fees@mu.ie webpage: <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/student-fees-grants>

Who can I talk to if I do not understand my results?

Students can contact The Exams Results Information Centre (ERIC) by using the Exam Results Query Form (specific times during the academic year)

I did not pass the year what are my options?

Students can contact The Exams Results Information Centre (ERIC) by using the Exam Results Query Form or Academic Advisory Office advisory.office@mu.ie